

THE DANCE TO QUAN AM

to Release Her Energy into the greater world

Quan Am (also known as Quan Yin) is one of the most universally loved deities of the Buddhist tradition. She hears and sees the cries of the people and feels deep empathy and compassionate loving kindness for all beings. She is a protector of women. She lives in the Heart Chakra, standing with full acceptance, love and healing, suspended in tranquillity and relishing joy with silence.

Oct 1-2

An invitation to all Sisters to meet at Sharda Centre, 15 Percy Graham Drive, Tuakau, South Auckland, at 6pm on Friday night, 1st October, where we will form sacred circle to prepare and attune to the energy of Quan Yin.

On Saturday afternoon we will dance amongst the 33 beautiful life size Quan Am at the Vietnamese Temple at Beaver Rd. We will also hear how this profound vision emerged with the hope of bringing Quan Yin, pouring her Essence into the world to balance the Divine Feminine and Masculine.
